

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION SYSTEM

Technical vocational and vocational education

- Lower vocational education (2 years)
- Upper vocational education (3 years)
- Technical education (4 years)
- Technical vocational education (3+2)

Lower vocational education

In this program students can enroll:

- Fulfilled primary school obligations and successfully finished at least seven grade of Primary level of education
- Finished primary level of education at the adjusted educational program (special needs)

Lower vocational education

- It lasts 2-3 years
- Based on practical education
- Finish with final exam
- Can continue education in upper vocational education or after that at technical vocational education

Upper vocational education

In this program students can enroll if they successfully passed:

- Primary school
- Lower vocational education and fulfill other conditions of educational program

Upper vocational education

- It lasts 3 years
- Based on gaining practical knowledge supported by theoretical subjects
- final exam
- Successfully finished education can enable enrollment into technical-vocational education

Upper- vocational education

Final exam:

- Checking the knowledge of native language
- Student needs to prove the professional knowledge by designing a product or doing a service. Beside that, he needs to show the usage of knowledge he had gained in school.

Technical education

- It lasts 4 years
- The goal is to prepare students on further education
- Vocational matura exam
- With vocational matura they can enroll in colleges of higher education
- With taking the higher level of matura subject they can enroll in some universities as well

Vocational technical education

In this program students can enroll if they successfully passed:

- Upper vocational education and fulfill other conditions of educational program

Vocational technical education

- It lasts 2 years
- Vocational matura
- They can enroll into higher level of education

Technical education and vocational technical education

Vocational matura:

- Based on 4 subject exams:
 - Native language - Slovene
 - Based on technical (electrical engineering) – theoretical subject
 - Math or foreign language
 - A product or service with the presentation (electrical engineering)
- Knowledge that is graded at vocational matura exam and criteria is determined in subject – exam catalogue